Peery-Powlas.

Very quiet and beautiful was the marriage on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the bride's home in East Hickory of Miss Pearl Miller Powlas and Rev. John C. Peery.

The reception room was neatly trimmed in pink and white festooning culminating in an arch with appropriate wedding bell. Bouquets of white hydrangea occupied conspicuous positions about the room. The mantle was banked with crepe myrtle.

Mendelssohn's march was sounded for the entrance. Bridal Duv, played softly during the reading and followed by Words of Love. The music was furnished by little ten-year-old Virginia Aderholdt, niece of the bride.

The bridal couple entered from different apartments unattended, coming together under the arch where the impressive marriage ceremony of United Lutheran church was read by Rev. O. W. Aderholdt of Statesville.

The bride, a beautiful brunette, wore a gown of becoming brown georgette trimmed in steel beads and carried a shiver bouquet of bride's roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple motored to the mountains of western North Carolina, where they have reservations for two weeks, after which they will be at home to their friends in East Hickory.

Mrs. Peery is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Maggie V. Powlas, is a graduate in the A. B. and Expression course of Lenoir college, and has taken postgraduate work at King's School of Oratory in Pittsburg. She possesses unusual charm and counts her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Peery served very successfully St. Andrews congregation until his recent election to the presidency of Lenoir college. He has already shown his ability in the new position and with this later acquisition the friends of the college can rest assured of a greater Lenoir.

It may be only a coincidence that A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general has not been so hard boiled against the profiteers since San Francisco—Portland Oregonian.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

LUTHERAN YOUNG PEOPLE TO MEET ON AUGUST 10TH

Concord, Aug. 7.—The third annual convention of the Young People's federation of the North Carolina synod will be held in St. John's church, Cabarrus county, August 10, 11 and 12. St. John's church is six miles from Concord, and can easily be reached, since it is on the jitney line to Mount Pleasant and Albemarle.

It is hoped that each society of the federation will send to the convention, not only its delegates, but also many others from the society and church.

Well, President Wilson has more than seven months to look about for a house to live in, and that's more jeezaw than some folks get.—Tacoma Daily Ledger.
